Governor's Message

I'm Kris Armstrong and Welcome to 2020. We are $\frac{3}{4}$ through the biennium and will soon be installing a new Governor and board of directors, time has sure flown by. But before we end the 2019/20 Soroptimist year, we have things to accomplish: finishing up the Live Your Dream and Wagner Awards are on the top of that list; Membership goals for the Diamond Campaign – getting closer to our target; Fundraising goals – has your club earmarked 10% of funds raised to go to SIA? I can tell you that we are woefully short of where I thought the Acorn Guild would be; has your club planned for new leadership in the new biennium? You know, I should have just bullet pointed because there's even more: who's going to the Convention on the Status of Women in New York? What about the SIA Convention this summer – who's going? How about the Governor's Club Award – have you started working on that? And to circle back to where I started, who's coming to Spring Conference in Ann Arbor?

As you see, we still have a lot to get done before summer rolls around. Your board of directors is meeting in less than two weeks and shortly afterwards, Secretary Missie will send out the Call to Conference. It's time to shake off the Holiday Season and rev up your Soroptimist motor – let's go!

Meeting the Students of St. Anne's Girls Secondary School in Damongo, Ghana!

Submitted by Kerri Green

Three SIGP members (Kerri Green, Carol Hofer, and Rosanne Morrow) recently travelled to St. Anne's Girls Secondary School (SAGISS) that the club supports in Damongo, Ghana.

The club provides tuition support for 6 girls each year. The tuition is $500 per term, and with 3 terms per year, the grand total is $9,000. The school consists of three grades, which are referred to as: Form 1, Form 2, and Form 3. This is the standard in Ghana for high schools.

SAGISS is a boarding school, which is also common in Ghana. I consider this to be a good thing for the students because attendance is more regular. Girls are not distracted by having to take care of younger siblings, the harvesting season, or other family obligations that could limit their schooling. The girls often live far away from the school, and only go home for breaks between the three terms. Transportation can be difficult, expensive, and time-consuming. We experienced multiple times that the dirt road from Damongo leading to the school is 4.3 km (2.6 miles), but feels like an eternity! It is so bumpy, rough, and dusty, and it usually takes about 20 minutes to cover it. The potholes of Michigan are really no competition for the terrible road conditions all over Ghana.

Since SIGP has been supporting this school for six years, we also had the pleasure of meeting some girls who had already graduated school thanks to our support. They came back to Damongo to meet us and express their gratitude. We had a nice group dinner so we could get to know these young ladies.

Francesca (2019 graduate) currently working in an office (typing, making copies, etc.). She wants to become a teacher and hopes to start training school next year.

Rejoyce (2019 graduate) currently lives with her family locally in Damongo and hopes to go to teaching school next year.

Agnes (2018 graduate) lives in Tamale and is taking an additional Mathematics course. If she receives favorable results on her math exam, then she wants to begin training to be a midwife.

Patience (2018 graduate) lives in Abuesi, about 5 hours south of the school. She plans to take an additional Mathematics course in 2020 and wants to study to be a nurse.

As for the club's six current students, we have two in Form 2: Jennifer and Helen, and four in Form 1: Sylvera, Prudence, Hilda, and Hanifatu.

I sat by Prudence at dinner, and we had a nice conversation. She lives with her mother and younger brother in a small, rural village far away from the school. (Her father is dead.) Coming to SAGISS in September was the first time she had ever left her village. At this time, Prudence hopes to become a nurse at a hospital.

I will admit that when we first met students in Ghana, I was very awkward with them. I had trouble finding things to talk about. "What are your hobbies?"—Most teenagers have chores and responsibilities and very little free time. Life is about survival, vastly different from the packed schedules and extra-curricular activities of American teenagers. Sports aren't common, except for football (what we call soccer), and I found that it was mostly played by boys. "Where did you go on your last family vacation?"—People in rural Ghana may never even leave their village, so they certainly don't travel for pleasure. I finally landed on asking students if they had siblings. Everyone could tell me about their brothers and sisters, and if they were younger or older. Also, music and dancing is wildly popular, so I often asked students if they could play an instrument. I was awed at the variety of musical talents these girls had with singing and rhythm, especially during church services and the traditional dances they greeted us with on the first day. SIA Headquarters

A Message from SIA Headquarters: We are excited to be launching our #SoroptimistsAtWork social media campaign for membership! The social media membership campaign is intended to demonstrate the value of Soroptimist membership across social media platforms. Using a unified hashtag, SIA, the regions, and clubs will post photos of Soroptimists volunteering and having a great time in fellowship and friendship together—two things members value most about SIA membership. Between now and May 31, 2020 please use the hashtag #SoroptimistsAtWork across your club’s Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram pages to share posts and photos of your members having fun together! We have some exciting plans and incentives in store for the clubs and regions whose posts earn the farthest “reach” online.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
 Best Wishes to All
 From Soroptimist International of Greater Macomb

SI Middletown had a Christmas party. We each bought a pair of Christmas socks and filled them with surprises. Everyone was given a number, and when your number was called, it was your turn to choose a pair of socks. After everyone had chosen a pair of socks, we opened them one at a time to discover the surprises inside. We found candy, teabags, lotions, office supplies, kitchen gadgets, more socks, and more. What fun!

Wishing everyone a safe and Happy Holiday!

The White Elephant Gift Exchange included everything from a calculator, singing toilet paper roll holder, candy, glassware, turtle, golfer and another fuzzy feathered bird! Not to mention our fun festive holiday eyewear!

A big THANK YOU, to Vicky Hicks for inviting us to her new home for our holiday party!

Soroptimist International of Monroe - Friendship Link Holiday Message

Wish you all for a happy Christmas and all the best for the New Year.

This photo was taken the other day when we went on a bus trip with SI Hofu club members.

This place is Nagato City, Yamaguchi Prefecture, which is an hour and a half by bus from Hofu where we live. And this is a very good hot spring area.

The hotel we visited is a famous long-established hotel that was also used in the Japan-Russia summit meeting in 2016.

We enjoyed a recreation that deepened the friendship of club members by eating great Japanese lunches, playing games and chatting here.

We want to send our bright smile to you.

Sincerely yours

Soroptimist International of Dayton

The Community Outreach to Runaway Youth (CORY) Project has completed its third distribution of posters for this year and two of the eight missing teens have been found. The club also celebrated its 83rd birthday on December 12 with the annual collection of gifts for the CHUMS Project. This project supports the work of Life Essentials which works with vulnerable adults throughout the community. They care for our community's forgotten, those living with mental illness, those who are alone, and those who have no voice. By selecting a Chum and providing a holiday gift, our members not only provide much needed clothing or desired items, but our present may be the only gift they receive at this time of giving. For many club members, selecting and providing their Chum with a gift truly starts the holiday season.

PADS

Every 5th Tuesday of the month the ladies of Illiana provide a meal and words of encourage for homeless women and their children at the Church of the Holy Family for their PADS program. PADS is a program that provides emergency overnight shelter from October 1 through April 30th. They are able to see refuge in safe, warm locations where they are able to connect with case manager, who work diligently to help participants make the transition from homelessness to becoming social and economic investors in the communities where they live and work.

On Tuesday, October 29, 2019 we provide a meal for approximately 20 family members. In addition, we partnered with Dawn's DancinDeevas (a line dance group), who provided over 100 purses filled with toiletries for us to distribute.

“HUMAN RIGHTS DAY”

We celebrated “Human Rights Day” during our meeting on Saturday, December 7, 2019 at Olivia’ Restaurant in Dolton, Illinois. We celebrated by having Chicago Police Officer Alise Buford come and speak with us about Trafficking in the Chicagoland. She gave us tips on how to prevent from becoming a victim.

In addition to having a guest speaker, we decided to have a sanitary napkin collection campaign “GIRL CONFIDENCE”. The reason for this campaign to assure our girls did not miss school because they do to not have the resource during their menstrual period. The name was chosen to empower young girls that they are still equip to go school and have the confidence during this time. We collected numerous packages of napkins in several different sizes. Many schools in impoverish areas do not supply sanitary napkins nor does the girls have money to purchase these. These gifts was given to the school counselor and school nurse. We had some many napkins, that we will present a supply to the PADS program on December 31, 2019, where we will celebrate the end of 2019 with them.

Soroptimist International of Downriver Area

Soroptimist International Wyandotte, Southgate, Taylor has a new name. We are now Soroptimist International Downriver Area!

Club members hope that this new name will encourage new members from surrounding areas (of W-S-T). This Club has been struggling with low membership for a few years now. Hopefully this new name is the fresh start needed to attract the talent needed to carry out the Soroptimist mission.

Some of our District III Clubs are great at attracting new members or hosting successful fundraisers and programs. Would you consider attending one of our meetings and shar- ing helpful tips?

We are looking forward to going into 2020 with a new name and new possibilities

Be someone who matters to someone who matters: January Is National Mentoring Month

by Rasheda Kamaria Williams

January is National Mentoring Month – a time for individuals and organizations across the country to bring awareness to the need for caring adults to serve as role models for youth.

According to MENTOR, the National Mentoring Partnership, 1 out of 3 children will face growing up without a mentor. That means millions of children throughout the country may never have powerful, positive interventions.

From children and teens in foster care to those with incarcerated parents, there are specific populations of youth who need positive role models.

Consider one-on-one or even group mentoring in your community. There also are opportunities to mentor youth across the country through online or e-mentoring programs.

It only takes a few hours a month of face time and a phone call or text a week to help increase a child's self-esteem. In addition to the mentee's development, the mentor benefits in many ways. My mentees have helped me aspire higher in my career and in life. And knowing that they're looking up to me keeps me living in integrity.

If you're interested in becoming a mentor but not sure if you have what it takes, answer these questions: 1. Do you have a big heart? 2. Do you have a little time? If yes and yes, then you've got it! At the end of the day, you don't need a fancy job title or curio cabinet full of plaques and medals to make a difference for young people.

LUNAFEST, the fundraising film festival dedicated to championing women filmmakers and bringing women together in their communities, will be hosted by Soroptimist International of Downriver at The Catherine Daly Theater in Wyandotte, MI March 27 and 28, 2020. The Soroptimist Club has partnered with The Downriver Actor's Guild in a joint fundraiser.

This unique film festival highlights women as leaders in society, illustrated through seven short films by women filmmakers. The films range from animation to fictional drama, and cover topics such as women's health, body image, relationships, cultural diversity and breaking barriers.

All proceeds from LUNAFEST will benefit Soroptimist Programs, Downriver Actors Guild and Chicken & Egg Pictures, a nonprofit organization that supports women nonfiction filmmakers whose artful and innovative storytelling catalyzes social change. Thus far, LUNAFEST, which is created and funded by LUNA®, The Whole Nutrition Bar, has raised more than $5 Million for nonprofit organizations across the US and Canada.

The event begins on Friday, March 27 with a red-carpet reception and viewing. Tickets to the reception are $25 each and include food, raffles and door prizes prior to the viewing. The after glow party's location is to be announced. Two general viewings are scheduled for Saturday, March 28. Tickets to Saturday's viewings are $10 for adults and $5 for seniors and students.
